

Stateline Area Business News in Brief

Posted: Tuesday, March 18, 2014 4:00 pm

Beloit welcomes AccuLynx

AccuLynx, a software development company based in Rockton, has relocated to the Ironworks Campus in downtown Beloit.

The company is leasing a 12,000-square-foot space in the former Beloit Corporation facility with an option for an additional 9,000 square feet.

Acculynx employees 30 people and could more than double its staffing over the next three years.

Richard Spanton Jr., president and CEO of AccuLynx, said he enjoyed working with Hendricks Commercial Properties, owner of the Ironworks Campus.

AccuLynx is the leading cloud-based business management software for specialty trade contractors.

Earthsong anniversary set

JANESVILLE — Earthsong Books and Gifts, 2214 Kennedy Road, Janesville, is celebrating 25 years of business this year.

An open house is set for April 12 and 13 from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Co-owned by Michael Strelcheck and Linda Caldean, Earthsong Books and Gifts opened on April 15, 1989. Over the years the store has expanded to twice its original size and in addition has a 300-square-foot classroom for workshops and special events.

Gummow at conference

ROCKFORD — Managing Director/Investment Officer Bradley Gummow, Financial Consultant Thomas Weightman and Registered Client Associate Emily Maney of Gummow Wealth Advisory Group f Wells Fargo Advisors recently attended the annual Barron's Top Advisory Teams Summit.

The event was hosted by Barron's Magazine to promote best practices in the industry. The invitation-only conference was held at the Gaylord Palms in Orlando, Fla. Feb. 5 - 7.

Attendees included Barron's ranked advisors along with their team members. Gummow, whose office is based in Rockford, was one of approximately 200 selected to attend and participate in the conference.