BELOIT (WIFR) – More than 1,000 people filled downtown Beloit on Sunday to show their spirit for their hometown.

East Grand Avenue was blocked off and families could get free hamburgers, hot dogs, and brats. There were also ice cream sundaes and face painting for the kids.

Spirit Day got started as an idea by a group of people after seeing unrest in the country. They wanted to do something positive to help turn strangers into friends.
