BELOIT, Wis. (WIFR) - Geronimo Hospitality Group announced the return of Bites of Beloit, which will run this year from Sept. 7-12 at various restaurants throughout the city.

Attendees can have their choice to eat at Bessie's Diner, Lucy's # 7 Burger Bar, Merrill & Houston's Steak Joint, Standard Tavern at Beloit Club, Truk't and Velvet Buffalo Modern Italian. Each of the participating restaurants will have pre-fixed selections from their menus. Prices start at $12 a meal.

"Bites of Beloit Restaurant Week was created to connect diners with restaurants and culinary experiences they may not have tried yet or visited in a while," said COO of Geronimo Hospitality Group Jeff Whiteman. "It's a great reason to get out and enjoy the many great things downtown Beloit has to offer. Your taste buds will thank you."

For information about Bites of Beloit, including food selections and a schedule can be found on the Bites of Beloit website or Facebook page.
